Online Motivational Sessions conducted by MAIC Alumni

Maharaja Agrasen International College recently conducted Motivational sessions through the Alumni Students. The college Alumni conducted these sessions on the online platform in order to help the students and to provide them with an extra boost for their exam preparation.

Meritorious Alumni students share their experiences of how they successfully cracked the University exams and outshined in their respective subjects. The students were guided on how to attempt the online Examinations and how to make the most of such a situation. The Alumni students of four prominent departments of the college were enthusiastic to share their experiences. They belonged to the BBA, B.Com, B.Sc, and BCA departments. From the BBA department Ms. Mahima Jain and from the B.Com Department Ms. Nidhi Verma addressed the students on the topic "Be a Merit Holder". From the BCA department Mr. Sridharam Srikanth gave a motivational session on "Career Guidance". From the B.Sc. department Ms. Daljeet Kaur took a session "Exam Preparation and Guidance"

The college regularly conducts such sessions wherein the students share their experiences, guidelines on time management and try to pep up the junior students with inspirational instances. The Alumni also share their nostalgic moments of college life and sort the queries of the junior students with an easy approach. The College's Chairman Shri Rajesh Agrawalji and Ex-Chairman Shri Ramesh Agrawalji have always shown keen interest in the conduct of such sessions. The college Management appreciated the conduct of such sessions under the guidance of the Principal Dr. Jyoti Janaswamy , HODs and Faculty members.
